Population Connection Action Fund Proudly Endorses Hillary Clinton for President

“Population Connection Action Fund is proud to endorse Hillary Clinton to be the next President of the United States,” said John Seager, President of Population Connection Action Fund. “Throughout her time in public life, there has been no more dedicated leader and advocate consistently working to expand women’s rights in the U.S. and abroad.”

“As First Lady of the United States, Hillary Clinton led a U.S. delegation to the Fourth World Conference on Women in Beijing and declared that “women’s rights are human rights” to a gathering of government leaders. She later pushed for follow-through to the groundbreaking commitment to expand access to family planning and reproductive healthcare agreed to by 180 countries at the International Conference on Population and Development in 1994.

As a senator from New York, Clinton introduced multiple bills to defend and expand access to reproductive health services and contraceptives. She sponsored a bill to restore U.S. aid to the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA) after it was eliminated by President Bush. She successfully blocked an effort by opponents of reproductive rights to legally define IUDs as abortion. And she waged a successful multi-year battle to pass the law that allows emergency contraceptives to be sold over the counter.

As Secretary of State, Clinton was a vocal champion of comprehensive efforts to raise the status of women and expand reproductive healthcare, including safe abortion. She created the State Department Office of Global Women’s Issues to elevate the needs of women to the top levels of American diplomacy. She worked tirelessly to call attention to and end the use of rape as a weapon of war.

And she worked to ensure that women and their needs were included in peace processes around the world.

As a candidate for President of the United States, Clinton has pledged to fight for the repeal of the Helms Amendment—a 43-year-old law that prevents the use of foreign assistance dollars from being used to provide abortion “as a method of family planning” but has been imposed as an outright ban on abortion care under any circumstance. She has committed to taking administrative action to ensure that—short of repeal—the law is enforced properly by allowing for abortions under circumstances that are clearly not “family planning.” She has also promised to fight for repeal of the Hyde Amendment, which prohibits federal funding for low-income American women who need safe, legal abortions.

Hillary Clinton offers the best chance to improve the status of women, promote and expand reproductive freedom around the world, and make progress against the most critical challenges facing all of us. We are proud to say, “We’re with her.”

Defunding Planned Parenthood and Repealing the Affordable Care Act (ACA)

January 6, 2016

House Roll Call 6

Our Position: Oppose

Passed: 240-181; 13 Not Voting

Rep. Tom Price (R-GA) sponsored this budget reconciliation measure to prohibit funding to Planned Parenthood and dismantle the Affordable Care Act (also known as Obamacare). The measure passed both the House and the Senate, but was vetoed by President Obama.

Vote to Override the President's Veto

February 2, 2016

House Roll Call 53

Our Position: Oppose

Failed: 241-186; 7 Not Voting (two-thirds majority required for passage)

After President Obama vetoed the original bill to defund Planned Parenthood and overturn the ACA, the House attempted to override the veto. It failed despite the majority voting in favor of the override, as overturning a presidential veto requires a two-thirds majority.

The Palmer Amendment

July 7, 2016

House Roll Call 390; Amendment No. 41

Our Position: Oppose

Passed: 223-192; 18 Not Voting

In December of 2014, the District of Columbia City Council unanimously approved the Reproductive Health Nondiscrimination Act (RHNDNA), which prohibited employers from penalizing employees for their reproductive decision-making. During debate on an appropriations bill, Rep. Gary Palmer (R-AL) offered this amendment to prohibit the District of Columbia from using any federal funds for the implementation of RHNDNA.

Motion to Table the Murray Amendment

December 3, 2015

Senate Roll Call 311; Amendment No. 2876

Our Position: Oppose

Passed: 54-46

During debate on a budget reconciliation bill, Sen. Patty Murray (D-WA) offered an amendment to establish a dedicated fund for women's healthcare and to ensure the safety and security of reproductive health clinics. Rather than voting on the amendment itself, the Senate voted on a motion to table the amendment without consideration.

Protecting Funding for Planned Parenthood

December 3, 2015

Senate Roll Call 314; Amendment No. 2885

Our Position: Support

Failed: 48-52

During the same budget debate, Sen. Susan Collins (R-ME) offered an amendment to remove a prohibition on funding for Planned Parenthood from the underlying bill.

Planned Parenthood and Zika Funding

June 28, 2016

Senate Roll Call 112

Our Position: Oppose

Failed: 52-48 (60 votes required for passage)

In response to the Zika virus outbreak, the House passed H.R. 2577. The bill provided far less funding to fight the epidemic than President Obama requested. Additionally, although contraception is one of the main ways of controlling the spread of the disease, the bill blocked Planned Parenthood from receiving this funding.

- √ These members have made public statements opposing our goals, but voted against this bill for reasons unrelated to its family planning provisions.

Thanks to Departing Champions

Several family planning heroes have announced their retirements from Congress. We are going to miss their passion and commitment, and we thank them for their many years of dedicated service.

Senate

Barbara Boxer (D-CA)

It is not an overstatement to say that no one on Capitol Hill has been more important in the fight to protect women and families worldwide than Sen. Boxer. She has been the leader of the movement to permanently repeal the Global Gag Rule, she has been a vocal and forceful proponent of increased funding for international family planning, and she has been a tireless advocate for progressive policies to address the great global challenges we face.

Barbara Mikulski (D-MD)

The longest serving woman in the history of Congress, Sen. Mikulski is leaving behind a powerful legacy of advocacy on domestic violence, fair pay, and reproductive rights. She also spearheaded the move to make certain that women's preventive health screenings were covered without copay under the Affordable Care Act.

Harry Reid (D-NV)

As the leader of the Senate Democrats, Sen. Reid has used his influence both to promote family planning and to block harmful bills. Personally opposed to abortion, Sen. Reid nevertheless always understood that the right of women to control their own bodies and destinies outweighed his personal beliefs.

House of Representatives

Lois Capps (D-CA)

Rep. Capps spent 20 years as a nurse before winning her seat in Congress, and that background continued to influence her work in government. She is a staunch supporter of fact-based sex education, and of women's and children's healthcare in the United States and around the world.

Donna Edwards (D-MD)

An unabashed progressive, Rep. Edwards was a clear and consistent supporter of women's healthcare during her time in Congress. She co-sponsored bills to protect abortion rights, improve access to family planning, and support women's reproductive decision-making throughout their lives.

Sam Farr (D-CA)

Rep. Farr promoted numerous pro-family planning bills during his time in Congress. He has also been a consistent supporter on other progressive issues, including pay equity, preventing domestic violence, and paid family leave.

Jim McDermott (D-WA)

Before coming to Congress in 1989, Rep. McDermott served as a Foreign Service Medical Officer in the country now known as the Democratic Republic of the Congo. In his 14 terms in the House, he has been a strong proponent of international aid and development and a crucial leader on HIV/AIDS policy, women's health, and prevention of gender-based violence at home and abroad.

Richard Hanna (R-NY)

One of the last moderate Republicans left in the House, Rep. Hanna repeatedly bucked his party to support women's access to healthcare. In 2012, he was the recipient of Planned Parenthood's annual Barry Goldwater Award, given to a Republican who supports reproductive freedom.

POPULATION CONNECTION
ACTION FUND

Population Connection Action Fund works to stabilize global population by:

- Fighting to ensure that every woman in the world has access to affordable, effective, and appropriate contraceptives;
- Educating American citizens and public officials about the impacts of population growth and the benefits of real investment in reproductive health and family planning;
- Mobilizing our grassroots base to advocate for effective policies; and
- Electing candidates who support the right of all women to control their own lives and defeating those who oppose it.

Population Connection Action Fund is the political arm of Population Connection, the nation's largest and oldest grassroots population organization. Our grassroots advocates are deeply invested in supporting family planning programs both domestically and globally—our goal is to turn that passion into real political progress.

JOIN US!

Join the fight to elect candidates who understand that investment in family planning around the world improves the health of women, children, and families. These programs are vital, but they are constantly under attack by anti-birth control politicians in the United States. Together, we can ensure universal, affordable access to birth control the world over.
